

I wish you could ask the Hispanic community of South Bend how much their LP-FM station (WSBL-LP) means to them. It is my opinion that LP-FM stations are a blessing, mainly because they are operated by local non-profit organizations, that know the needs of their listeners and try to satisfy them. We cannot say the same of stations that generate their programming thousands of miles away. Thank you. Sincerely: Laurie